Welcome Message

To all delegates and participants,

It is a pleasure to welcome you to our 41st Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM) of Malaysian Orthopaedic Association (MOA) with the participation of the ASEAN Arthroplasty Association (AAA).

The team comprising myself, Dr Jamal Azmi, the Chairman of AAA, Assoc Prof Azhar, the Scientific Chairman and Assoc Prof Azlina, the Scientific Vice Chairman together with committee members have set up an excellent scientific programme on Arthroplasty, which we believe, you will enjoy and be enlightened with the latest advancement in this field.

The ASM of MOA is our most important event of the year, and it is a great opportunity for you to get together with friends and colleagues especially from Asean countries.

We have also invited many international distinguished faculty and Presidents to participate in our Meeting to not only exchange updates in this field but also to strengthen our international collaboration.

We are proud to host this Meeting at the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, an iconic landmark of Malaysia that offers a stimulating environment where one can work, live, shop and visit.

I have great pleasure in welcoming you to what promises to be an enriching meeting and pleasant stay in Kuala Lumpur.

Welcome Message

On behalf of the ASEAN Arthroplasty Association, I would like to greet and congratulate the Malaysian Orthopaedic Association for hosting the 41st MOA AGM/ASM Annual Meeting combined with the 5th ASEAN Arthroplasty Association Meeting this year.

Since the founding of the AAA 5 years ago, the ASEAN hip and knee surgeons have always been working together with the other 5 national associations of the ASEAN in fulfilling the mission and vision of the association.

The mission of the ASEAN Arthroplasty Association is to promote and develop the knowledge and skills in hip and knee reconstruction surgery in ASEAN nations. We hope this conference will provide a unique opportunity to exchange knowledge and experiences in addition to dissemination of research in the area of hip and knee surgery throughout the international community. Hopefully with the help of information gained from this congress, we are able to provide the best available service and expertise to our patients.

This assembly is another opportunity for you to review and discuss the latest developments in the field of Orthopaedic surgery and Arthroplasty perspectives. May you continue to serve quality orthopaedic services in the ASEAN region. May this convention be a fruitful learning experience to all, as well as an opportunity for the members to establish and maintain fellowships with one another as we continue to ensure the health and well-being of our countrymen by fulfilling our vision of providing health for all. Please join us at this memorable congress.

Dr Thanainit Chotanaphuti

President, ASEAN Arthroplasty Association &
Organising Chairman, 5th AAA Scientific Meeting
